RE: Announcement of the College's New President

We are pleased to inform you that the Board of Regents has asked Dr. Linda Sue Warner to assume the position of President of San Carlos Apache College (SCAC). She is expected to assume the office on August 5, 2024. We welcome Dr. Warner's leadership as we begin the next chapter of San Carlos Apache College's history.

Linda Sue Warner, Ph.D., is the Special Assistant to the President on Tribal Affairs at Northeastern Oklahoma A&M College, OK. Previously, Dr. Warner served as the President of Haskell Indian Nations University Lawrence, KS. She is a member of the Comanche Tribe of Oklahoma and has deep experience as an educator, program manager, and scholar in Indian Country. Dr. Warner earned a Doctor of Philosophy in General Administration from the University of Oklahoma; a Master of Education in Administration from Pennsylvania State University; a Bachelor of Arts in Language Arts Education from Northeastern State University; and an Associate of Arts from Northeastern A&M Junior College.

We would like to extend our appreciation to the entire College community for your participation at the presidential forums. All feedback was reviewed and greatly valued by the Board. Everyone's collaborative and concerted work truly enriched the search process. We would also like to express my appreciation to the Presidential Search Committee for their time, dedication, and thoughtful work on behalf of San Carlos Apache College.
